

THE PROFESSOR JOHN G. FRANCIS PRIZE FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT MENTORING

The Professor John G. Francis Prize for Undergraduate Student Mentoring is a $1000 award given to a University of Utah faculty member who has shown extraordinary efforts in mentoring students outside the classroom.

How to Apply

Submit the required materials online by April 15, 2022.

- A letter of recommendation from a dean, director, or chair.
- A current CV from the potential awardee.
- Materials related to impact of mentorship, including quotes, letters, etc.

Criteria

- The candidate has shown extraordinary efforts in mentoring a student outside the classroom.
- The candidate has conducted work at a programmatic or institutional level related to mentoring students.
- The candidate has demonstrated evidence of mentoring students in curriculum vitae.
- The candidate creates a supportive and inclusive mentoring environment.

Questions?

If you have questions about the award, contact Jim Agutter.

